

Church Generosity 6-Session Online Training

This free training comes from a generous grant that was given to the National Association of Evangelicals. This committee-based online training is designed to be added to your agenda during your regularly scheduled church leadership meetings over the next six months. Allow for 20 or more minutes (depending on the number of people and the amount of discussion) each week to go through this training experience together.

The course is built around 37 Best Practices that any church can consider doing. The average church is currently using anywhere from 10-15 Church Generosity Best Practices, and most groups will likely decide on several new Best Practices that could be a good fit for their church in the future. Every leadership team can customize their own action plans and 12-month Church Generosity calendar.

In addition to this Church Generosity course, there are additional resources and free training courses at NAEfinancialhealth.org/onlinetraining.

Church Generosity Session 1

Step 1 – TRAIN

Watch the Church Generosity Session 1 video, which includes teaching on 10 Ways People are Influenced to Live Generously.

Step 2 – DISCUSS

Discuss the 10 Ways People are Influenced to Live Generously chart below, and share one of the 10 ways you have been influenced to live generously.

Step 3 – AFTER THE MEETING

- Each leader should download a free copy of the 40-day Generous Life devotional at GenerousLifeDevo.org. Begin to read through this with your spouse or family (about 5 minutes each day).
- The pastor and/or interested key church leaders should take the Church Generosity assessment survey at NAEfinancialhealth.org/cgsurvey. They can also go to NAEfinancialhealth.org/onlinetraining to access the Church Generosity Best Practices worksheet and 12-month planning calendar.
- The pastor needs to complete all of the After the Meeting action steps including the feedback questions about Session 1 at NAEfinancialhealth.online.
- Optional: Any interested leaders can sign up for the God Is Your Provider Personal Finances online course. Sign up for free at NAEfinancialhealth.org/onlinetraining.

We want this training to be a powerful life-changing experience for you, your leadership team and your church. May God use this training to ignite people’s faith, inspire generosity and increase giving at your church.

Sincerely,

Brian Kluth
National Director of NAE Financial Health
